

- 1. When we get a spiritual wake up call from God we need to respond with action and by looking to God's salvation (1-20)
 - a. We need to respond with practical, personal action that demonstrates a true change of heart (1-14)
 - b. We need to look to God's means of salvation (15-18)
 - c. Some people ignore God's wake up call (19-20)
- 2. Jesus has what it takes to save us because He is God's Son (21-38)
 - a. Jesus is accredited as God's Son by supernatural signs (21-22)
 - b. Jesus is accredited as God's Son even through His human genealogy (23-38)

"How should life be lived in the last hours before the blade of the ax strikes?" –Norvall Geldenhuis

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS:

1. What is the biggest disaster that you ever had to prepare for? How did you prepare?
2. John the Baptist doesn't mince his words. What do you make of his approach? Would we do well to emulate him today?
3. Do you agree with John's assertion that people are sinful and are in need of a Savior? Why or why not? Did you always believe that way? If not, what changed your mind?
4. John called for practical, personal responses from the people to "put their money where their mouth is." Name something specific in your own life that you feel convicted that you need to change in order to honor God.