

For Further Study:

“The Life of Christ in Stereo” by Earl Rodmacher

“Jesus Christ our Lord” by John Wolvoord

“Vintage Jesus” by Gerrry Breshears and Mark Driscoll

October 16, 2011

Eric Johns

King Jesus Luke 19:28-48

1. The triumphal entry shows us who Jesus was (28-40)

- a. Jesus presents himself as the prophesied Messiah
- b. Many people acknowledge him as their messianic king
- c. Jesus accepts the people’s praise

2. The triumphal entry cautions us not to miss KING Jesus

- a. We need to trust Jesus as savior
- b. We need to respect him as king

3. The triumphal entry reveals Jesus’ heart for his enemies (41-48)

- a. Jesus grieved over lost Jerusalem
- b. Jesus predicted Jerusalem’s fall
- c. Jesus confronted Jerusalem’s sin

Small Group Questions:

- 1. Do you have any special place where you go to pray, seek the Lord or reflect on life?
- 2. What makes the Mount of Olives ideal for such a place of prayer and reflection?
- 3. In what ways did Jesus make messianic claims as he entered Jerusalem?
- 4. What was the main point of Pastor Eric’s sermon Sunday? Are there anyways you are neglecting the kingship of Jesus in your life?
- 5. How do you think Luke felt penning the predictive words of Jesus about the fall of Jerusalem? What does this say about the gospel writers? What does this affirm about Jesus?
- 6. How can we pray for one another?