

- Are there particular areas of life where you find the world's wisdom more appealing than God's? What makes it appear more appealing?
- What are some of the ways that the world's wisdom to infiltrates your thinking?
 - Friends?
 - Family?
 - Work?
 - Culture?
 - What else?
- How do you establish an atmosphere of peace in your life?
- How do we reach out to non-Christians without becoming a friend of the world?
- How do you responsibly plan for the future and try to follow God's will at the same time?

God's Wisdom vs. The World's Wisdom

In your Life (3:13-18)

- The World's Wisdom brings chaos (v.13-16)
- God's Wisdom brings peace (v.17-18)

In your Motives (4:1-10)

- The World's Wisdom pulls you away from God (v.1-5)
- God's Wisdom brings you closer to God (v.6-10)

In your Speech (4:11-12)

- The World's Wisdom judges others (v.11)
- God's Wisdom leaves it to God (v.12)

In your Planning (4:13-17)

- The World's Wisdom plans without God (v.13-14)
- God's Wisdom plans with God (v.15-17)